A contemporary refers to Mr.
C. Bryan, daily newspaper article, as Cal's Calories.

The country could probably stand it if none of the Senatorial candidates got elected.

It is hoped that the coming couple of weeks will alleviate the Ston Song, if not cure it.

No lumber seems quite so unproductive as searching for and moving pine in a new shirt.

No one should aspire to be President unless he can stand criticism from 120 million people.

An essential part of our discretion playing in St. Louis just distracts. There may be others.

Soon we will have to tear down some of our "corner" skyscrapers to make room for the midge god of course.

The confesses, repudiates confessions, and repudiates repudiations so much that it's hard to tell just what Gaston B. Meany.

A single brand of cigarettes now has sales of more than two hundred millions of dollars a year would be advertising to tell which one.

Minature golf is solving the unemployment problem! It takes half of the time to get from the United States to the other half to play it.

Congresswoman Rogers wants other uniforms for our soldiers.
It may be to no more war we might as well make them entire ornaments.

Anapolis Baptists during the recent hot spell held services on a certain day. And what could have been a more convenient place?

Mohammedan women are demanding right to see their protection and justice, too. The male attitude on the subject has not been revealed.

AN OLD-TIMER'S DIARY

An article in The Country Home presents an interesting outlook on the views and habits of an old-time farmer. He died in 1926. Sutton, who is the father of state's executive, is dead.

Sutton was a member of the state assembly for 10 years and in 1900 he left to teach and live many of his days and since kept a diary in which his acts and impressions are recorded. In the autumn of 1926 he died in his 80th year.
